

Seminario Feliciano Montero de Historia Religiosa Contemporánea

The feminization thesis under scrutiny: the case of the freethinking women of Ghent (late 19th - early 20th century).

Speaker: Nyala Karla Nauwelaers, Vrije Universiteit Brussel

Commentator: Clare Stainthorp, Royal College of Art & Queen Mary University of London

Session: Tuesday, September 30, 2025, 6:00 p.m. (Central European Time)

Location: virtual seminar

To participate, please contact: aehrc.asociacion@gmail.com

Organized by: Spanish Association for Contemporary Religious History (AEHRC) in collaboration with the Secular Studies Association Brussels (SSAB) and the TheoFem project: Lay Women: International Experts and Theologians avant-la-lettre. Legacies and Entangled Histories (1945–1962), Grant No. 101108049.

Information and coordination: natalia.nunezbargueno@kuleuven.be

Seminario Feliciano Montero de Historia Religiosa Contemporánea

The feminization thesis under scrutiny: the case of the freethinking women of Ghent (late 19th - early 20th century).

Ponente: Nyala Karla Nauwelaers, Vrije Universiteit Brussel.

Comentarista: Clare Stainthorp, Royal College of Art & Queen Mary University of London.

Sesión: Martes 30 de septiembre 2025, 18.00 h. (Hora Central Europea)

Lugar: Seminario virtual, para participar contactar: aeirc.asociacion@gmail.com

Organiza: Asociación Española de Historia Religiosa Contemporánea en colaboración con Secular Studies Association Brussels (SSAB) y el proyecto TheoFem. Lay Women: International Experts and Theologians avant-la-lettre. Legacies and Entangled Histories (1945-1962) 101108049.

Información y coordinación: natalia.nunezbargueno@kuleuven.be

